PREPARING THE BALL-ROOM

Workmen Busy Within the Walts of the Pension Building. Confusion reigns in the great half of the Pension building, at least it seems so to the eye of the count observer. Workmen orators and electric light men seem to be doing their level best to turn it upoid-Wires, timbers and great piles of packing boxes are scattered all about and the people who go to the office on besides. have to pick their way carefully through have to pick their way carefully through the tanglest mass. The men who are work-ing on the decorations seem to be the only once at work, however, for, at all hours of the day, large groups of employes may be seen standing laxily about fully watching the preparations. Pension attorneys com-plain that they are unable to have their business attended to and some have given up trying until after the ball is over.

The Pythian Knights' Celebration. The twenty-fifth auniversary of the Knights of Pythias was observed last even ing in an appropriate manner by the local divisions of the first secret benevolent or-ganization of American origin. At 7:30 members of the Grand Lodge of the Dismembers of the Grand Lodge of the Dis-trict, under the command of Captains Cog-gins and Fugitt, marched to the Assembly Presbyterian Church, where Rev. George O. Little delivered an address. After this-about 400 members of the order with their friends assembled at the National Rifles' Hall, where a banquet was enjoyed. Ad-dresses were made by Past Grand Chancel-lor and Supreme Representative Goodheart and Past Grand Chancellors W. G. Balley, Coppe and Thompson, and the singing of Coppe and Thompson, and the singing of the Mount Vernon Glee Club added greatly to the pleasure of the occasion.

I.C.CORSETS

The very fact that we have sold the I. C. Corsets for the past seven years, with a steadily increasing sale for it, is convincing evidence that it must have true merit. Were it not fully up to what we have led you to expect of it the sales would have quickly shown your disapproval. It embodies certain features peculiarly its own; it produces a graceful and symmetrical shape to the form without neces-The Washington Riding Academy has been bought by John F. Waggaman.
